

EVENTS OF DAY IN WEST SCRANTON

SUMMER MASS MEETING OF CHRISTIAN ENDEAVORS.

Held in Washburn Street Presbyterian Church—Six Members of Company F Added to the Roll. Funeral of Rudolph Winebrake. Social and Organization of Epworth League Chapter in Keyser Valley—McCaffrey-Healey Wedding—Benefit Concert—Other Notes.

Representatives of the various churches connected with the city union of the Christian Endeavor society met in the Washburn Street Presbyterian church last evening in the annual summer mass meeting. A large number were present.

Rev. G. W. Welsh, president of the union, presided, and spoke of several matters pertaining to business of the union. Rev. Luther Waring, pastor of Grace Reformed church, also spoke along the lines of the society's pledge.

Rev. R. F. Y. Price, of Penn Avenue church, was present and referred to the personal work which needs to be done among the members in order to insure success. Rev. J. P. Moffat, of Washburn street church, gave some points regarding the tri-county convention to be held at Ashley today.

The singing was in charge of Professor Daniel A. Stone. Encouraging reports were received from all the societies in the union, and much good work is being accomplished.

FUNERAL OF R. WINEBRAKE. Services over the remains of the late Rudolph Winebrake were held at the family residence on North Eighth street at 2 o'clock yesterday afternoon. The members of Ezra Griffin Post, No. 129 Grand Army of the Republic, and the Sons of Veterans drum corps attended the services.

The cortege moved to St. Luke's Episcopal church, where at 2:30 o'clock Rev. Rogers Israel conducted the services. Many life-long friends of the deceased were in attendance. Interment was afterwards made in Forest Hill cemetery. The pall-bearers were from the Post and Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers.

KEYSER VALLEY EVENTS. The members of the Keyser Valley Hose company tendered a reception last evening to the ladies who assisted them at their recent picnic. The affair was held at the home of Michael Grant, on Langstaff avenue. Games and dancing were enjoyed and refreshments were served. President John J. F. York, assisted by the members of Simpson Chapter, Epworth League, organized a new

Paine's Celery Compound . . . 75c
Pinkham's Compound . . . 70c
Pierce's Golden Medical Dis. . . 75c
Mellon's Food . . . 38c and 55c

—AT—
GEORGE W. JENKINS,
101 S. Main Avenue

A Little Ahead of Time

As the Trade Generally Figures It, but Just in the Nick of Time.

It brings the bargain benefits offered within the reach of thrifty and far seeing holiday shoppers. Shirt Waists for ladies of such faultless excellence and exquisite beauty have never before been offered in Scranton so early in the season, at such tempting prices, but stock taking will be completed within 10 days from date, and to be candid with you, we'd rather see the cash than the best stock there ever was on our balance sheets. In some of the finer numbers offered sizes are slightly broken, but you can count on getting something to suit in every sale price named:

29 Cents

Buy the pick of as nice a half dollar line as was ever shown in Scranton. Choice materials, designs and endless choice of patterns.

Closing Price, 29c

69 Cents

Quite a jump in price, but its the nearest we can come under the circumstances. For service you cannot get a better waist at any price. White, some of the designs, show style enough and to spare.

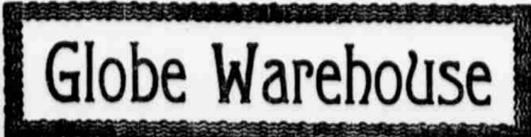

Closing Price, 69c

98 Cents

And you can take your pick of any fancy colored shirt waist stock, selling as high as $1.78. Previous to this announcement some of these waists are positively works of art, notwithstanding the branch of the organization at the Keyser Avenue Mission last evening. Addresses were made by Superintendent William Crossford, President York, Miss Anna Hughes and others. A large membership was enrolled.

Closing Price, 98c

Novelties in Summer Skirts and Waists Arrive Almost Daily.

MCCAFFREY-HEALEY NUPTIALS. Daniel McCaffrey, of 923 Scranton street, and Miss Winifred Healey, of Meridian street, were united in marriage at the 5 o'clock yesterday morning by Rev. W. P. O'Donnell, pastor of the church. Miss Lottie Ryan was bridesmaid and James Ruddy groomsmen.

Breakfast was served at the home of the bride's mother after the ceremony and the couple left for Wilmington, Del., on a wedding trip. They will register at 394 Meridian street. Mr. McCaffrey is a valued employe of the Colliery Engineer company and his bride is an estimable young lady of many endearing qualities.

CO. F MEMBERS ENROLLING. Six additional members of Co. F, Thirtieth regiment, Pennsylvania volunteer infantry, enrolled at the meeting in St. David's hall last evening, making a total number of thirty-eight now signed for the company.

Fifty members are necessary for muster and it is expected by next week the required number will be enrolled. Another meeting will be held in a few days. It is to be hoped that West Scranton will be represented in the Thirtieth again.

WILL BE GIVEN A BENEFIT. William Evans, who was formerly employed in this city as a cigar-maker, but who has recently been studying music with Professor James Savage, in New York city, has returned to the city for a short vacation.

His many friends who are anxious to learn of his progress are talking of arranging a benefit concert for him in the near future. A meeting will be called next week to arrange the details for the concert.

GENERAL NEWS NOTES.

A lawn social will be held this evening on the lawn adjoining the residence of Dr. F. C. Hall on North Main avenue. The social is to be given under the auspices of the Woman's Home Missionary society of the Simpson M. E. church. Ice cream will be on sale during the evening. All will be welcome.

The teachers of No. 12 school enjoyed an outing at Nay Aug park yesterday afternoon and evening.

The Thimble club will picnic at Nay Aug park tomorrow afternoon.

The Mothers' Jewels of the Simpson M. E. church will be entertained in the Sunday school room this afternoon. A program of songs, recitations, etc., will be given and ice cream will be served.

The members of the First Baptist church executive board met last evening at the home of Charles Corless on South Main avenue, and acted upon several matters.

Water Knight and Miss Maggie A. Phillips, of Olyphant, were married by Rev. William E. Morgan, of 44 Edwards court, on Wednesday evening.

Patrick Quinn, of Avoca, and Miss Emma Hughes, of West Scranton, were united in marriage at Holy Cross church Wednesday morning by Rev. W. P. O'Donnell.

A party of friends were entertained at the home of Miss Bridget Gallagher, on Luzerne street, Wednesday evening.

Miss Eva Apear, of Stratford avenue, Lincoln, Pa., very pleasantly entertained a delegation of friends at her home on Wednesday evening.

A number of young folks were given a party at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Heller in South Decker's court Wednesday evening in honor of the Heller children.

Evon Owens, a miner in the Bellevue, had his leg caught by a fall of coal yesterday, and badly injured. He was taken to Moses Taylor hospital.

The American Telephone and Telegraph company will erect a new building at the intersection of Jackson street and Keyser avenue, where its branch office is now located.

PERSONAL PARAGRAPHS.

Druggist George W. Jenkins and Dr. George E. Reynolds spent yesterday at Maplewood fishing. They are contributing their catch among their friends.

Brother James, who has been identified with St. David's Episcopal church for the past two years, leaves today for the cathedral at Garden City, L. I.

Misses Bessie Davis and Edna L. Davis returned yesterday from Bloomsburg State Normal school.

Mrs. Ellen Sherwood, of New York city, is visiting friends in town for a few days.

Miss Clara Davis, of Plymouth, is the guest of Miss Margaret Edwards, of South Main avenue.

Miss Augusta Blair, of South Main avenue, has returned from New York Mrs. Edward Boat and Miss Elsie Frydson, of Pittston, are visiting Mrs. R. W. Walker, of North Main street.

Miss Anna May Richards, of Scranton street, is travelling through the New England states.

I. M. Miller and family, of Washburn street, will leave Monday to spend the summer at Lake Winola. They will be accompanied by Mrs. Frank Williams, of Williamsport.

Miss Della Fitzsimmons, of Jackson street, and her mother, who resides at Shultsville, are visiting in New York.

GREEN RIDGE.

Miss Josephine Fleming, of Newton, Mass., is the guest of Miss Sarah Fordham, of Capouse avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. C. T. Bellamy, of Delaware street, spent yesterday at Lake Ariel.

Mrs. Nolan's class of the Baptist church will give a low cream social on the lawn adjoining the church this evening. The proceeds of these socials are for the new church building. If it is stormy, cream will be for sale in the church parlors.

Mrs. L. W. Peck, of Capouse avenue, who was seriously ill, is much improved.

Miss Bessie Soper, of Capouse avenue, is entertaining a friend from Dover, N. J.

W. R. Longstreet, superintendent of public schools in Tioga county, spent the forepart of the week with his sister, Mrs. L. W. Peck. The professor was on his way home from attending to duties falling on him as one of the State board of examiners, which met at the Bloomsburg State Normal school.

Tooth brushes, all sizes and prices. The finest in the city at Manners' pharmacy, 329 Green Ridge street.

Cards are out announcing the coming wedding of Miss Alice E. Benson to Harry B. Thomas, on July 12, at the home of the bride's parents on Marion street.

The Women's Christian Temperance union held a mothers' meeting in the library yesterday afternoon, at which Mrs. Edward Nolan gave a very interesting talk.

While Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Clearwater, of Green Ridge street, were driving over the Marion street bridge yesterday, the horse became frightened at an engine and ran away, throwing the occupants out and badly injuring them. The horse was stopped on Green Ridge street, after demolishing the buggy.

The Misses Grace Warner and Horstene Robinson, of Capouse avenue, are visiting friends in Wilkes-Barre.

J. P. Warner, of Capouse avenue, is the guest of his nephew, Dr. Warner, of Wilkes-Barre.

The Junior Loyal Legion will meet in the Evangelical church this evening at 7 o'clock. A full attendance is required to protect the plans for the Fourth of July picnic.

Imperial Queen Hair Tonic at Manners' pharmacy, 329 Green Ridge street, the greatest hair grower known. 50c a bottle.

OBITUARY.

Richard Rodrick, of Wilkes-Barre, died last evening at the home of his wife, Richard Rodrick, Jr., 235 North Main avenue, where he was visiting. The deceased was 68 years old and was born in Wales, county, in this country in 1831. He settled in Wilkes-Barre, where he has resided ever since. He is survived by a widow and the following children: Mabel Inspector Edward Rodrick, of this city, and Mrs. William Jenkins, of Wilkes-Barre; R. J., of Hazleton, and Mrs. John E. Hughes, of Forest City. He was also a brother of James Rodrick, of Hazleton, who is chief of the bureau of mines. The funeral announcement will be made later.

Richard Green, formerly of this city, died yesterday at his home in Wilkes-Barre. He is survived by a wife and two children. Mrs. Green is a sister of John Ward, of the Hunt & Connel company. Mr. Green was employed by the Pennsylvania Supply company since his removal to Wilkes-Barre five years ago. Before taking up his residence in that city he lived here and was employed by the Hunt & Connel company. He has many friends in this city who will regret to learn of his death.

Mrs. John W. Davis, aged 63 years, died at her home at 10th and 1/2 Park avenue yesterday afternoon from the effects of a paralytic stroke. Deceased was an old resident of West Scranton and is survived by her husband and the following sons and daughters: Mrs. T. Thomas, Mrs. Clarence Gillette, Mrs. William Thomas, Mrs. Elvira Jenkins, Thomas Isaac and Frank Davis. The funeral services will be held Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the house, interment in Washburn street cemetery.

John Hogan, who died at the Moses Taylor hospital Wednesday evening was a prominent young resident of Pottsville and formerly lived in Pittston. He was 22 years of age and the main support of a family of four young sisters and an infant brother. Three years ago his mother was buried on the same day. The funeral will take place tomorrow morning from St. Thomas' church, Pottsville. Interment will be made at Pittston.

GIVE THE CHILDREN A DRINK

called Grain-O. It is a delicious, appetizing, nourishing food drink to take the place of coffee. Sold by all grocers and liked by all who use it. Because it is properly prepared it tastes like the finest coffee, but is free from all its injurious properties. Grain-O aids digestion and strengthens the nerves. It is not a stimulant but a health builder, and children, as well as adults, can drink it with great benefit. Costs about as much as coffee. 15 and 25c.

Strengthens System Body Brain and Nerves.

VINI MARIANI (MARIANI WINE)

No other preparation has ever received so many voluntary testimonials from eminent people as the world-famous Mariani Wine.

Appetizer Before Meals

Digestive After Meals

Tonic At All Times

To those who will kindly write to MARIANI & CO., 32 West 14th Street, New York City, will be sent, postpaid, a book containing portraits with endorsements of Emperors, Princes, Cardinals, Archbishops and other interesting matter. Mention this paper.

NORTH SCRANTON NEWS.

Delightful Entertainment Held Last Evening in the Providence M. E. Church—Y. W. C. A. Will Entertain This Evening.

The social and entertainment held last evening under the auspices of the Ladies' Aid society of the Providence Methodist Episcopal church was largely attended and an excellent evening was enjoyed by all present.

The following programme was rendered: Recitation . . . . . Miss Dawson Recitation . . . . . Miss Ruth Benjamin Recitation . . . . . Helen Martin Duet, Instrumental . . . . . Miss Norton and Horace Norton Recitation . . . . . Miss Clara Stoum Recitation . . . . . Miss Ruth McDonald Duet, Instrumental . . . . . Misses Benjamin and Barnes Recitation . . . . . Miss Lida Conestine TOLD IN A FEW LINES. The North Scranton branch of the Young Women's Christian association have arranged an enjoyable occasion for this evening, to which they ask attendance of all having the interest of this organization at heart. They will make it pleasant to all, and hope to receive a financial return from the good things they will serve.

The new Auditorium was opened to public inspection yesterday and a large number of people took the liberty to go through the magnificent building. For today special invitations have been issued and in honor of the event Major Fish will entertain a large number of guests.

James J. Haggerty, who until recently was employed in the Fenner & Dickerson ready pay store, will open a first-class grocery store today. Mr. Haggerty will open his store in the Loftus building on North Main avenue, and will be assisted by his sister, Mrs. Albert Harris, of Hyde Park, had the two first fingers of his right hand completely severed in the Storrs mines yesterday by a large piece of coal.

Miss Kate Highland, of West Market street, was severely injured yesterday by falling off a swing. She was swinging when the rope broke, throwing her violently to the ground.

Mr. Thomas D. Phillips and family, of Summit avenue, desire to give their most sincere thanks to all friends and neighbors for their sympathy which was shown towards them during the time of sickness and death of their beloved daughter, Jennie Phillips.

At her home on Green street Miss Anna Henry charmingly entertained on Tuesday evening a number of friends. The guests were Misses Coleman, Grace Bell, Susie and Fleda Dawson, Pearl Lidstone, Pearl Henry, Ida Anderson, Cornell Laidie Robinson and Nan Reese. Messrs. Cornell Reese, Walker Bond, Fred Campbell, Edward Kelley, Fred Leland, Arthur M. Madsen, Charles McPercy Henry, Oscar Davis and Griffith Thomas.

PERSONAL NOTES. Miss Ida Evans, of Moosic, is the guest of Mrs. Jacob Davis, of Parker street.

Benjamin Robinson, of Oak street, is in Bridgeton, Maine.

Morris Saunders, of Ashley, is the guest of Mrs. Margaret Williams, of Margaret avenue.

Mrs. Dominick Kime, of Keyser avenue, is ill.

Miss Mrs. Charles Davis, of Olyphant, was the guests of friends on Throop street yesterday.

George Mayes, Jr., has resigned his position with Fenner & Dickerson, and accepted one as book-keeper with Thomas O'Halley, the hardware dealer of North Main avenue.

Miss Gertrude Powell, of Ashley, is the guest of her aunt, Mrs. Richard Edwards, of Wayne avenue.

Mrs. John Gross and daughter, Margaret, of Ouzge City, Kansas, are visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Gross, of Church avenue.

Mrs. Gardner, of Factoryville, is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. William Barney, of Deacon street.

Mrs. J. E. Howells, of Taylor, was the guest of her sister, Mrs. L. H. John, of Hollister avenue, yesterday.

Mrs. Detrick, of Nineveh, is the guest of Mrs. George Davis, of West Market street.

Henry Thomas, of Brooklyn, N. Y., is visiting his parents, Officer and Mrs. Thomas Thomas.

Miss Ella Mullen, of Peekville, is being entertained by Miss Margaret Evans, of Brick avenue.

Miss Mame Johnson, of Clinton, Mass., is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Peter Johnson, of West Market street.

Miss Mame Barrett, of Archbald, is the guest of Miss Nellie Jenkins, of Williams street.

Miss Kate Simms, of Taylor, and Mrs. Annie Davis, of Beckville, are visiting Mr. and Mrs. David Reese.

Miss Mame Thomas, of Spring street, and Miss Nettie Birtley, of Throop, have returned from Bloomsburg, where they attended the commencement exercises of the Normal school.

GATHERED IN SOUTH SCRANTON

MANY BLUSHING BRIDES LED TO ALTAR YESTERDAY.

Miss Lizzie Coyne Becomes the Wife of John McVarish—The Ruane-Houston Nuptials—The following Marriages Also Celebrated: Jordan-Healey, McCandrews-Christy, Sawye-Courtney—Graduating Exercises at St. John's Parochial School—Other News Notes.

At 11 o'clock yesterday morning the marriage of Mr. John McVarish, of Cedar avenue, and Miss Lizzie Coyne, of Gent street, was performed by the Rev. Father Fleming, at St. John's church. Mendelssohn's wedding march was rendered by Miss Katie Boardman. The bride was attended by her sister, Miss Anna L. Coyne, and the groom by Mr. John Kelly, of Minooka. The bride and her maid were prettily attired in gowns of white organdie over white silk, trimmed with silk ribbons and bridal roses.

A wedding dinner was served at the conclusion of the ceremony to the immediate friends at the home of the bride's parents.

Mr. and Mrs. McVarish left on the 1:30 train for Washington, D. C., and other points of interest. On their return they will commence housekeeping in a newly furnished home on Cedar avenue.

RUANE-HOUSTON. A charming wedding took place at St. John's church on Wednesday when Mr. George Houston, of Irving avenue, and Miss Ellen Ruane, of Locust street, were united in matrimony. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. E. J. Melley.

The bride's attendant was Miss Marie Boland, and the groomsmen were Mr. James Hamlin. A reception was held at the bride's home for a few intimate friends and relatives of the contracting parties. Mr. and Mrs. Houston left on the 12:55 train for New York and other cities.

JORDAN-HEALEY. On Wednesday afternoon the marriage of Mr. Patrick Healey, of Pittston, and Miss Kate Jordan, of Stone avenue, was performed at St. John's church by the Rev. E. J. Melley.

After the ceremony a wedding dinner was served at the home of the bride's parents.

MCANDREWS-CHRISTY. Mr. John Christy, of Brook street, and Miss Ellen McCandrews, of River street, were united in marriage at St. Peter's cathedral on Wednesday.

A reception was held at the home of the bride's mother on River street immediately after the ceremony and was attended by a number of the friends of both parties.

SAWYE-COURTNEY. On Wednesday at 5 o'clock the marriage of Mr. Michael Courtney, of Genet street, and Miss Ellen Sawye, of Cherry street, was solemnized by the Rev. E. J. Melley. After the ceremony they received the congratulations of their many friends at the bride's home.

GRADUATION EXERCISES. Six young ladies were graduated from St. John's parochial school Wednesday morning. The usual commencement exercises were not held this year.

The graduation exercises were witnessed by the families and immediate friends of the graduates, who were the Misses Margaret Loreita Manning, Mary Agnes Jordan, Margaret Imahusa Heffron, Margaret Veronica Hopkins, Elizabeth Veronica McDermott and Mary Aloysius Madden.

The term just closed has been a most successful one and excellent results were obtained. The programme rendered Wednesday was as follows: Opening March . . . . . M. Heffron, M. Hopkins, M. Manning Violin Selection . . . . . Misses S. Ruddy, R. Donnelly, A. Reardon, A. Boland, Master M. Smith; accompanist, Miss M. Boland. Recitation . . . . . Miss C. Murray Piano Solo . . . . . Miss M. Heffron Boys' Chorus . . . . . Miss A. Lavelle Instrumental Trio . . . . . Misses M. Manning, M. Hopkins, L. McDermott.

ANGELS OF MANY LANDS. Archangel . . . . . Miss M. Manning Angel of America . . . . . Miss M. Hopkins Angel of Erin . . . . . Miss M. Heffron Angel of France . . . . . Miss M. L. Heffron Angel of Spain . . . . . Miss T. Hanlon Angel of England . . . . . Miss M. Madden Angel of Italy . . . . . Miss L. McDermott. Prayers—Miss C. Murray, Miss H. Donnelly, Miss A. Kelly. Home, Sweet Home—Pantomime. Senior Pupils Hymn to the Sacred Heart. Accompanist, Miss B. Brown.

SHORT NEWS NOTES. The annual picnic of St. Peter's society of St. Mary's congregation was held at Central Park garden yesterday afternoon and night. The affair was highly successful and was attended by a large number of persons. Headed by Lawrence E. Haggerty, of this city, St. Joseph's societies and St. Mary's Glee club paraded the streets of this side last night and then proceeded to the park. Michael Wetter was marshal of the parade.

A still alarm was sent to the Neptune Engine and Hose company yesterday afternoon. A pile of rubbish was burning on the bank of the Roaring Brook, near Hickory street. When the company arrived upon the scene the flames had been extinguished by a crowd of small boys.

The annual excursion of the William Connell Hose company will be run to Lake Ariel, August 19. The one thousand employees of the Lackawanna Knitting mills will accompany the excursion by the courtesy of Charles H. Connell, superintendent of the mills.

At Wednesday night's meeting of Branch 85, Catholic Mutual Benevolent association, $25 was donated to Rev. Father Moffat, of Taylor, to be used in the fund for his new church at Taylor.

Miss Kate Gerbach, of Buffalo, is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Conrad, of Pittston avenue and Alder street.

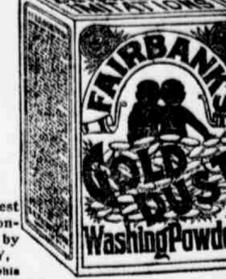

Charles Uhl has returned to his home at Elmira, after a visit with Peter Rosar, the Cedar avenue grocer.

Pea Coal Delivered, $1.25, to South Side, central city and central Hyde Park. Address orders to C. E. Sharkey, 1514 Cedar ave. Phone 6653.

MINOOKA. For the first time in the history of Lackawanna township schools, the school year closed with appropriate exercises at No. 1 school. An excellent Something New!

5¢

Large package of the World's best cleanser for a nickel. Still greater economy in 4 pound package. Made only by THE N. K. FAIRBANK COMPANY, Chicago, St. Louis, New York, Boston, Philadelphia

THE LEADER

Scranton Store, 124-126 Wyoming Avenue.

Friday

Ordinary, every day events in this store are equal to extraordinary events elsewhere. Therefore, if our every day prices eclipse the bargain prices of other stores, how much more can you save on days when WE make supreme efforts. These for today only.

69c embroidery trimmed muslin gowns at 29c

Made in the most faultless manner of good muslin, with yoke of embroidery and cambric ruffle. Quite a contrast to the stuff another store is offering, being superior in quality and at a much lower price. Friday only. 29c

39c for women's 59c gowns—Mother Hubbard style, tucked and trimmed with embroidery.

49c for women's 75c gowns—Nicely tucked square neck of embroidery insertion, trimmed with wide embroidery edge to match.

59c for women's 89c gowns—Empire style, with yoke of embroidery, collar handsomely trimmed with embroidery to match. Others up to $5.00.

Friday

Great assortment at very little prices. New arrivals almost daily make this an always up-to-date stock from which choosing is easy. For today we offer at five cents the yard some forty styles of dimities that we ordinarily get eight and ten cents for. This is a very substantial fabric—not mosquito netting—in patterns that will make up very handsomely. Friday only. 5c

12c for imported dimities, batistes pine apple tissues and lace lawns, that were 16c, 18c and 20c. 19c for the balance of our fine French organdies, regular price up to 39 cents the yard.

8c for your choice of a hundred different styles of printed organdies, batistes and lappet cloths, worth from 12c to 15c the yard.

Friday

Clearing time in this department is at hand and price cutting is one of the usual things. Any price is better than keeping the goods—especially in flowers. See this offer for today. Good enough for dealers to take advantage of!

All 10c and 15c flowers are 3c—Take your choice—any kind you choose so long as it was not marked more than 15c previously. 3c

All 20c and 25c flowers are 8c—Take your choice here, too, of anything marked NOT over 25 cents the bunch. 8c

50c short back sailors at 10c—Short Back Sailors and fancy shapes in black and colors—Friday only. 19c

People Do not fully realize the importance of cutting plenty of bread. Bread contains the necessary elements for making bone and tissue, and when made of "Snow White" Flour it constitutes a health food which nothing can excel. It is light and wholesome and easily digested. It makes red blood and plenty of it. All grocers sell it. "We only wholesale it" THE WESTON MILL CO. Scranton, Carbondale, Olyphant.

Palmer Hammocks for Comfort. Prices from 90 Cents Up. FOOTE & FULLER CO., Mears Building, 140-142 Washington Ave. SPECIAL THROUGH CARS TO THE SEASHORE. Daily (Except Sunday) Via CENTRAL RAILROAD OF NEW JERSEY. Leave Scranton at 8.30 a.m. for Long Branch, Ocean Grove, Asbury Park, Belmar, Spring Lake, Sea Girt, &c. Returning, leave Point Pleasant at 11.30 a.m., Spring Lake, 11.51 a.m., Belmar, 11.56 a.m., Asbury Park and Ocean Grove, 12.05 p.m.; Long Branch, 12.22 p.m. Arrive at Scranton at 8.05 p.m. This will be kept up for the entire season, especially for the accommodation of families, as it will enable passengers to secure and retain comfortable seats during the entire journey.